REMEDIAL COMMITTEE

Slow learners are those students who are getting marks below average. These students are identified during classroom teaching, mid-semester exams and end semester exams.

Objectives:

1. To help students in understanding subject matter in a simple way.
2. To develop good relationships among teachers and slow learners.
3. To motivate slow learners to study well and overcome their fear in the subjects.

Outcomes:

1. Slow learners gain knowledge of subjects according to their own pace.
2. They overcome their fears in the subject.
3. Students pass the examinations comfortably.
