Parent Teacher Association of the College organized a Parent Teacher Meet under the guidance of College Principal Dr. (Mrs.) Neeru Sharma and incharges Dr. (Mrs.) Sukhwinder Kaur, Mrs. Savita Nanda and Mrs. Rajni Sharma. PTM is a regular feature and after pre semester exams students and parents from various streams attended the meeting to discuss their wards academic performance with the respective subject teachers. Parents and teachers discussed the results of the pre- semester exams, including the overall performance, subject-wise scores and areas of improvement. The teachers provided feedback on the strengths and weaknesses of the students and suggested means to enhance their performance. Parents were also informed about the new grading system and NEP guidelines.

The attendance and participation of students in classes, assignments and other academic activities were discussed during the PTM. Parents were counselled to ensure regular attendance and active participation of their children in academic activities for better performance. The PTM was conducted in an organized and systematic manner, with parents and teachers engaging in meaningful discussions. The PTM witnessed significant participation from parents and teachers alike. The college Principal appreciated the overall incharges Dr. Sukhwinder Kaur, Mrs Savita and Mrs. Rajni Sharma for their efforts in organizing the PTM and facilitating constructive discussions between parents and teachers. She also said that PTM provided a valuable platform for parents and teachers to collaborate and work towards the academic success of the students, fostering a positive and supportive learning environment in the college.
