Skill Enhancement Program

With an aim to improve competencies of the students by offering necessary skills and training, various departments organised short term courses under the realm of IQAC. The Fashion Designing department organised short term course on "Designing and Tailoring". The course covers the basic knowledge of designing and stitching of garments. Students learnt new painting methods and different embroidery patterns specially Mandala art and Lipin art along with the mode of colour contrast. The department of Cosmetology organised short term course on "Beauty and Therapy". The course covers practical skills and techniques needed for various beauty treatments such as skincare, makeup application, hair removal, nail care, and massage. The Department of Commerce organized 'Simulation of Commerce through Technology'. The primary objective of this program was to enhance student's skills in using technology to simulate various commercial operations. To ensure a practical and immersive learning experience, students were engaged in a variety of activities such as Xero AI enabled accounting, Getresponse AI enabled email marketing Tools, various AI websites and digital marketing tools. College Principal acknowledged the contribution of concerned departments.

ELC and Lok Sabha Elections 2024

In the wake of 2024 Lok Sabha Elections, various events were conducted in the campus under SVEEP campaign. The Electoral Literacy club, in collaboration with a news channel, organized an event on voters' awareness. The initiative aimed to highlight the significance of voting in Lok Sabha Elections. Various students shared their perspectives on the matter, emphasizing the power of ballot in shaping the nation's future. As per instructions of Election Commission, Electoral literacy Club also Organized an awareness program. College Principal along with the event in-charge distributed voter Guide 'Booklet' to students, educating them on how to vote in the upcoming Lok Sabha Election. The students were instructed about the use of the electronic voting machines (EVMs) effectively and choose their candidate. Electoral Literacy Club decorated the campus for Lok Sabha Elections 2024. Four both were also decorated and all facilities were provided to BLOs for smooth functioning of the elections. First Time Voters (FTVs) were also honored by college Principal

Kudos to Central Association

Central association of college plays a pivotal role in organizing various academic and curricular activities. To acknowledge students' contribution in college, every year Thanks Giving Ceremony is organized. The Central Association invited Mrs. Kusum Verma (Former Principal, K.N College for Women, Phagwara) as Chief Guest. Charity Projects like 'Share happiness with others', 'Prayas', 'Samvedna' etc. were highlighted through PPT and students were applauded for their contributions. College Principal also made a special mention of the work done by CA throughout the year. She apprised CA works like a backbone with whose presence every task of the college can be accomplished successfully be if it is about maintaining discipline or celebration of national days, other events or festivals. CA members honored the college Principal and expressed their gratitude towards her guidance by gifting her hand written notes on paper crafted flowers.
